Time(approx)	Itinerary	Service
	Breakfast at the hotel.	Private round-trip transfer from your hotel to Old Town Split in a modern, air-conditioned vehicle
10:15 am	Meet your driver for a private transfer to Old Town where your guide awaits to take you for private food and walk tour.	Split historical and gastro tour with Green Market
10:30 am	Join this food and history tour and your guide will take you to three different places, so you can taste the most delicious and scrumptious food while you are walking the streets of the 1700-year-old imperial palace, getting to know all of Diocletian Palace and the surrounding medieval highlights.	(Included: English-speaking guide, food, wine) Group size 2-12 people Tour begins at 10:30 am Duration: 3 Hours
	You'll start your food adventure by visiting Green Market, a great traditional restaurant "konoba" known for its culinary specialties "macaroni" – handmade pasta and fresh seafood.	Accommodation in Radisson Blu Resort & Spa 5* in Split, premium double/twin room with sea view & balcony + roll away sofa, BB basis
	During the next part of the tour, you will visit a small shop where you will taste traditional peasant pie "soparnik" and the tour concludes in the oldest pastry shop in Split, where you will taste traditional pastries and gelato.
	Rest assured, you will enjoy this food &amp; walk culinary tour with the best highlights of Split and its delights.
	For a bit of shopping and a bite to eat head to Marmont Street, though you'll want to make your way to the waterfront, Split's focal

4:00 pm	embankment officially titled Obala Hrvatskog narodnog Preporoda, the Riva is where the city meets over coffee. As the sun moves across the sky, and thoughts turn to the night ahead, customers on the dozen or so café terraces tend to start ordering stiff drinks rather than coffee. Order up a drink, maybe a signature doorstep sandwich of prosciutto and cheese, and take in the last of the day's rays.
	Return transfer to your hotel will follow. Time at leisure and an overnight in Split.

Time(approx)	Itinerary	Service
9:00 am	Breakfast at the hotel Meet your driver and a guide for a private full-day excursion from Split to Krka NP &amp; Šibenik. Krka National Park is just over an hour's drive away from Split and is a nice place to visit in the morning before the crowds arrive. With seven waterfalls—the largest and most impressive being Skradinski Buk—Krka National Park is one of Croatia's top-rated parks home to a network of striking waterfalls. The Krka River, another highlight of the park, carves through the limestone and creates a spectacular canyon on its 44-mile journey (70 km) from the foothills of the Dinaric Alps to Šibenik. Follow the winding wooden paths that traverse emerald pools and river islands to prime lookout spots in which to view the falls. Mother Nature saved the best for last with Skradinski Buk. Cascading 78 feet (24 m) down into an emerald lagoon wider than the falls are tall, you'll find restaurants, snack stands, and ice cream shops at the base of this picture-perfect locale to satisfy any food-related cravings. After spending the morning in Krka, head to the coastal town of Šibenik for the afternoon. A true Croatian town founded by the Croat king Petar Krešimir IV in the 11th century, Šibenik is home to impressive fortresses, music festivals, and medieval gardens. Explore the enchanting narrow streets of Šibenik accompanied by your guide. Enter the magnificent piece of art that is the cathedral in Šibenik. Built uniquely, completely out of stone, and abundant with delicate sculptures and ornaments, this fantastic building forms part of the UNESCO and makes every visitor fall in love with it. Return to Split for a time at leisure and an overnight in Split.	Private excursion from Split to Šibenik &amp; Krka NP accompanied by an English-speaking guide in a modern air-conditioned vehicle Entrance fees to Krka NP included Accommodation in Radisson Blu Resort &amp; Spa 5* in Split, premium double/twin room with sea view &amp; balcony + roll away sofa, BB basis
